

Euroflex

It is a family business which was founded in 1990 and has so far managed to make great strides and innovate in many areas.

Since 2004 produces Insoflex a new patented products disposed world they do not exist, which has been a hit in the market.

Recently we installed a vertical production line closed cell polyethylene foam used for insulation: roofs, partitions, floating floors, acoustic cars and any other form of insulation. Also used for packaging materials such as: safety glass for furniture or transfer them to any other use.

All our products are recyclable and contribute to energy savings for both humans and the environment.

Our goal is quality and the development of our products as much as possible without changing their ecological importance.

Our company is certified according to ISO 9001.

